RESTAURANT GENERAL MANAGER

RESTAURANT MAGGIE OAKES

Inspired by Montreal's vibrant culinary scene, American steakhouses and bistros, Maggie Oakes is a modern 180-seat grill that puts a lot of emphasis on market vegetables. It boasts an impressive dry-ageing meat locker, a large glass enclosed wine cellar and a unique green wall to grow fresh herbs and shoots.

Maggie Oakes restaurant is looking for a new Restaurant manager. This person is passionate about the restaurant industry and will know how to make every visit an unforgettable experience for our guests by combining trendy cuisine and exceptional service. A hands-on leader with a clear vision and who knows how to communicate his expectations positively to his entire team.

Your day-to-day tasks are:

- To warmly welcome guests and ensure their satisfaction during their visit;
- Maintain relationships with regular customers and retain new guests;
- Hire, train, inspire and mobilize the service team and together establish a high standard of service;
- Work jointly with the Chef and his brigade;
- Achieve and even surpass the set operational objectives;
- Ensure the management of human resources, scheduling and team performance management;
- Establish a positive, pleasant and motivating atmosphere to foster teamwork and relationships with the various departments of the hotel;
- Participate in various projects for bar and cocktail optimization;

Our ideal candidate :

- Someone passionate with 3 to 5 years' experience in high volume restaurant management;
- A wine lover who likes to share his passion;
- A born leader who is also a team player ready to push things further;
- An ambitious person who cares about the well-being of the team and the guests;
- Priority management, organised and a keen sense of adaptability;
- Bilingualism is a must;
- There is no secrets, in the restaurant industry you must be available days, nights and weekends;
- Having a good knowledge of different restaurant softwares such as Micros and Opentable is an asset;
- Having a restaurant management diploma is an asset;
